

Part time courses at Franklin College

“Take advantage of the range of courses Franklin College has to offer!”

Carla Probert, 34, started her part time studies with Franklin College as an adult learner in 2011. She studied Numeracy Level 1 and 2 and Literacy Level 2 at South Parade Children’s Centre. Carla said she would definitely recommend all our courses at the Children’s Centres to everybody, as they provide a very friendly and supportive atmosphere, while the free crèche offered is a huge help for all parents with younger children.

When Carla finished her first few courses, she went on to study GCSE Maths in 2012 and GCSE English in 2013. In the meantime she enrolled on a foundation degree course at the University Centre, Grimsby. Due to her hard work, resilience and new qualifications, she was able to get a job working for North East Lincolnshire Council as a relief child care officer.

Carla said she has really enjoyed her classes with the excellent tutors from Franklin College. “They are highly professional, very helpful, specialized in their subject areas and have many years of experience.”

“There was always a family like atmosphere at classes that was rather comforting,” said Carla. “We had to prepare quite a few presentations for our English classes, which was great to practice and functioned as a confidence booster. It gave me a huge advantage when I started my studies at University.” Another benefit of adult learning courses, according to Carla, is that most adult students are very committed and devoted to learning. They all choose to be there to make a life for themselves by gaining qualifications and starting a career.

Carla said her plan for the future is to be successful in whatever she does and at the same time making her children proud of their mother. Her advice for other adult learners is to take advantage of the range of courses Franklin College has to offer, as they open up new doors and can give your life new perspective.
