

Part time courses at Franklin College

Shelina Ahmed, 36, is another brilliant example of what our adult learners can achieve. Her journey on her, rather challenging, career path started with a GCSE Maths course at East Marsh Children’s Centre, Victor Street. Shelina admitted she was always petrified of Mathematics, but when her daughter started struggling at school with Maths too, she decided she would face her fears and enrol onto Franklin’s Maths course. She, herself, was pleasantly surprised at how quickly she was picking up this long dreaded subject, which she ended up enjoying quite a lot.

Part time courses with Franklin College have varied timetables and the venues across Grimsby are well suited for adult learners from all backgrounds. There is a crèche provided at the Children’s Centres as well, which makes it easier for parents to attend any classes. Shelina emphasised the importance of the social aspect of these classes too. She said Franklin’s adult learning courses will get you out of the house, you can meet new people and make new friends, while building your career by getting a useful qualification. Shelina said her Maths teacher, Hayley Lister, was an absolutely fantastic teacher and she can only recommend her classes to everyone. With her easy to understand, logical methods even the most difficult Maths exercise became child’s play. After the boost of confidence Shelina got from successfully completing her GCSE Mathematics with a grade A, she decided to keep on going and get a degree. She enrolled onto the BA Psychology course at the University Centre Grimsby, which she can’t wait to finish, because she is already looking forward to going on to a Masters Degree to fulfil her dream of becoming a clinical psychologist.

Shelina’s advice for other adult learners is to “Set your goals and just go for it! You won’t regret it! It’s never too late to get your qualifications and start building your career.”
