

Franklin Sixth Form College is committed to protecting and respecting the privacy of all our visitor's personal data whilst at College and once you have left the College. This Privacy Notice explains how we collect, use, store, and share your personal data in accordance with the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), the Data Protection Act 2018, and other relevant data protection laws. Please read this notice carefully to understand how we manage your data.

Franklin Sixth Form College is a provider, who is responsible for the collection and processing of your personal data, as defined by data protection laws. The College is the data controller and/or processor for personal data relating to you.

What Personal Data We Collect

We collect and process the following categories of personal data. The points below are only examples and not an exhaustive list, and may include other data where appropriate– if you have any questions, please contact the Data Protection Officer:

1. Personal Information: Name, contact details (including email and phone number), vehicle registration detail, appropriate ID documentation to adhere to our safeguarding procedures, signing in and out records.
2. Attendance Information: (in relation to meetings e.g. date and time of visit).
3. Details of who you are visiting: Purpose and reasons as to why you are visiting the College.
4. Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND): If applicable, information about any special educational needs or disabilities if this has been disclosed to us.
5. Emergency Contact Information: Name and contact details of an emergency contact / next of kin.
6. Health and Wellbeing Data: Any medical or health information or health needs you may have disclosed to us.
7. Photographs and Video: Photographs, videos or testimonials for example, during College activities or College related events for marketing or educational purposes. Including photograph of Visitor's ID badge. These may all be used for promotional purposes and such as but not limited to, College printed publications, on the College website and on social media or any other suitable forum the College deems acceptable. Additionally, this information may be shared with schools, employers and any other appropriate third parties. These may also be used once you have left the College.
8. Criminal Convictions: as part of the DBS and in accordance with the Rehabilitation of the Offenders Act (1974) and any other relevant legislation
9. Legal requirements: (such as Single Central Register, for compliance with KCSIE guidance and Register of Interests)
10. Any other relevant data that the College deems appropriate.

How We Use Your Personal Data

We use your personal data for the following purposes. The points below are only examples and not an exhaustive list, and may include other usages of your data where appropriate – if you have any questions, please contact the Data Protection Officer:

1. To Provide Educational Services: Such as allowing the College to perform their duties.
2. To Monitor Progress and Achievement: To assess the quality of our services.
3. To Provide Health and Welfare Support: To provide appropriate support, care and guidance including in the event of an emergency or if you require any special assistance.
4. To Manage Attendance: To track and monitor your attendance at College meetings.
5. To Communicate with You: To send you important information in order for you to fulfil your visit.
6. To Comply with Legal Obligations: To meet legal and statutory requirements such as safeguarding, SEND, health and safety, and financial auditing and comply with the law regarding data sharing.
7. To safeguard students and others
8. To provide information to appropriate third parties

The College will use the information provided in a manner that conforms with the Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA 2018), the UK GDPR and the Human Rights Act 1998.

We do not undertake any automated decision making. The College is committed to being transparent about how it collects, uses, stores and deletes data and to meeting its data protection obligations.

Why does the College collect and use Visitor's information?

The College collects and uses visitor's information. The lawful basis on which we use this information is that we collect it as part of our public interest task of providing education. We collect and use information under Article 6 (1). of the UK General Data Protection Regulation 2018 (GDPR) where:

- Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject
- Processing is necessary in order for us to carry out a public task

We also collect and use Visitor's information which is defined as a special category of personal data under Article 9 (2). of the GDPR 2018, such as biometric and ethnicity data. We also define other sensitive data as a special category, (this list is not exhaustive) for example SEND data.

Lawful Basis for Processing Your Personal Data

We rely on the following lawful bases to process your personal data. The points below are not an exhaustive list, and may include other lawful basis for processing your personal data where appropriate – if you have any questions, please contact the Data Protection Officer:

1. Performance of a Contract: The processing of your data is necessary to fulfil our contract with you.
2. Legal Obligation: We may process your data to comply with legal obligations.
3. Consent: In some cases, we may ask for your consent.
4. Legitimate Interests: We may process your data for legitimate interests, such as improving services and communications and College safety.

Your Rights

Under data protection law, you have the following rights regarding your personal data:

1. Access: You have the right to request access to the personal data we hold about you in certain circumstances.
2. Rectification: You have the right to request that we correct any inaccurate or incomplete data in certain circumstances.
3. Erasure: You have the right to request the deletion of your personal data in certain circumstances.
4. Restriction: You have the right to request that we restrict the processing of your personal data in certain circumstances.
5. Data Portability: You have the right to request that we transfer your personal data to another organisation.
6. Objection: You have the right to object to certain types of processing of your data in certain circumstances for example if it is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress.
7. Withdrawal of Consent: If we process your data based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time in certain circumstances.

You also have the right to:

- Object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- Prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- Object to decisions being taken by automated means
- In certain circumstance, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed

To exercise any of these rights, please contact the College's Data Protection Officer (DPO).

Right to request access to your information

Under data protection legislation Visitor's have the right to request access to information about them that the College holds. To make a request for this, please email information.governance@franklin.ac.uk who will process the request in partnership with Franklin Sixth Form College's Data Protection Officer.

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we request that you raise your concern with us in the first instance to information.governance@franklin.ac.uk. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/make-a-complaint>

CCTV

CCTV recordings are used and retained for a limited period to ensure the safety of student applicants, students, parents/guardians, staff and visitors to the College. Access to view and monitor these recordings is limited to the appropriate staff who will report and act accordingly if suspicious or inappropriate actions or behaviours are identified. CCTV images may be passed on to the police for the purposes of crime detection or prevention and Franklin Sixth Form College will also disclose CCTV footage when requested by insurance companies. CCTV may be used to assure the integrity of our examination arrangements, with footage shared with Awarding Organisations for audit and fraud prevention purposes.

How We Store Your Data

Your personal data will be stored securely and only for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes for which it was collected, or as required by law. We implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect your data from loss, misuse, or unauthorised access.

Who We Share Your Data With

We may share your data with the following parties as required. The points below are not an exhaustive list, and may include other parties of who we share your data with, where appropriate – if you have any questions, please contact the Data Protection Officer:

1. Internal Staff: College staff involved in services that have an impact on your role and if our College policies allow it.
2. Third-Party Providers: External organisations that provide educational or administrative services.
3. Regulatory Authorities: Relevant educational authorities, including the Department for Education (DfE and Education & Skills funding Agency (ESFA).
4. Health and Emergency Services: In the event of an emergency, we may share relevant information with emergency services or health, well-being and safeguarding professionals and services including Social Services and the Police.
5. Legal or Regulatory Bodies: If required by law or to protect our legal rights, we may share your data with authorities, such as the police or a court of law.
6. We occasionally share Visitor's information with: Civica (record system), Auditors including College External Auditors, Insurers or other appropriate consultants.

We will not pass your information to third parties for them to contact you directly for their own marketing purposes.

Occasionally information will be shared with the department for education. For more information about the department's data sharing process please visit: How DfE shares personal data - GOV.UK

How to Contact Us

If you have any questions or concerns about how we process your personal data, please contact:

Data Protection Officer

Email: information.governance@franklin.ac.uk

Telephone number: 01472 875000

Changes to This Notice

This Privacy Notice is subject to change. We may update this Privacy Notice from time to time to reflect changes in our practices or legal requirements.